

John Sheerman - Sample of work:

Here you will find a sample of the work I have produced. This should help present a range of experience in different fields, from drama and comedy to factual content. My full CV can be found on my website here: John Sheerman's CV.

1. This is a brand-new radio comedy pilot that hopefully displays amongst other things an ability to write fast, funny and contemporary characters with plenty of twists and some punchy gags along the way.
 - Hothead
2. This is a sample selection from a series of short films recently completed at Royal Central School of Speech & Drama with which I was involved in a writing and editing capacity.
 - Boudicca with a bedpan
 - 50% of Nothing
 - Never going back
3. I wrote a four-part series for Radio 4 which aired in 2015, this displays my ability to generate funny ideas and concepts and deliver to broadcast deadlines. The attached audio file is one 30-minute episode of the series.
 - Radio 4 sketch show
4. I wrote and produced a sketch series which was subsequently purchased by BBC Worldwide leading to a commission on BBC Radio 4. The links below are just two examples of the work.
 - The Cubicle
 - The Heist
5. I have in the last year written a series of guest blogs dealing with London's history and culture aimed at international visitors navigating the city for the first time.
 - London's hidden gems
 - A guide to London's drinking culture
6. I continue to write my own blog on the subject of London, examples of my writing can be found here. These blogs display an ability to generate factual content on a regular basis.
 - Gad About Town blog
